ARTICLE 1.—The town of ~~Longmeadow~~, in the county of Hampden and State of Massachusetts, hereby avails itself of the several provisions of the statutes of this Commonwealth now in force, relating to habitual truants and absentees from school, and in pursuance of authority conferred thereby adopts the following By-Laws:

ART. 2.—All children between the ages of seven and fifteen years, residing in said town, and who may be found wandering about in the streets or public places of said town, having no lawful occupation or business, not attending school, and growing up in ignorance, shall be committed to the Hampden County Truant School, located in the city of Springfield in said county, for confinement, instruction, and discipline.

ART. 3.—Two or more Truant Officers shall be appointed annually, whose duty it shall be to inquire into all the violations of the Truant Laws and of the law relating to compulsory education, and to do all the acts required of them by laws of the Commonwealth.

ART. 4.—It shall be the duty of every Truant Officer, previous to making any complaint under these laws, to notify the truant or absentee from school, also his parent or guardian, of the offence committed, and of the penalty therefor; and if the Truant Officer can obtain satisfactory pledges for the restraint and reformation of the child, he may at his discretion forbear to prosecute, so long as such pledges are faithfully kept.

ART. 5.—It shall be the duty of the School Committee, the teachers of the Public School, and the citizens generally, to aid the Truant Officers as far as possible, in the discharge of their duties.

ART. 6.—It shall be the duty of the Truant Officers to keep a full record of all their official acts, and make an annual report thereof to the School Committee, who shall publish the same with their own report.

ART. 7. Nothing in these By-Laws shall be so construed as to alter or impair the obligation and duty of teachers to enforce punctuality and regularity of attendance, and to preserve good order and discipline.

State Election
Nov. 2, 1896

Election Warrant 1896.

To John C. Vase, Collector of Taxes

You are hereby required, to notify and warn the inhabitants of the Town of East Longmeadow qualified to vote in elections to meet at the Town Hall on Tuesday November third at eleven o'clock in the forenoon to cast their ballots for, —

Election of President and vice President (15); Governor; Lieutenant Governor; Secretary; Treasurer; Auditor; Attorney General; Councillors; Senator; Representative in the General Court (1); Clerk of Courts; County Commissioner; Representative in Congress; to vote on the following amendment to the Constitution relative to establishing Biennial Elections of State Officers and members of the General Court as provided for by chapter 71, resolve 1896 viz:—

[CHAP. 71.]

RESOLVES PROVIDING FOR SUBMITTING TO THE PEOPLE THE ARTICLES OF AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION ESTABLISHING BIENNIAL ELECTIONS OF STATE OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF THE GENERAL COURT.

Resolved, That the following articles of amendment to the constitution, having been agreed to by the last and present general courts, and published in the manner required by the constitution, be submitted to the people for their ratification and adoption:—

FIRST ARTICLE OF AMENDMENT.

The governor, and lieutenant governor, and councillors, shall hold their respective offices for two years next following the first Wednesday in the January succeeding their election, and until others are chosen and qualified in their stead.

The first election to which this article shall apply shall be that held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-eight; and thereafter elections for the choice of all the officers before mentioned shall be held biennially on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November.

All the provisions of the Constitution inconsistent with the provisions herein contained are hereby annulled.

The secretary, treasurer and receiver general, auditor, and attorney-general, shall hold their respective offices for two years, beginning with the third Wednesday in the January succeeding their election, and until others are chosen and qualified in their stead.

A person shall be eligible as treasurer and receiver general for three successive terms, and no more.

The first election to which this article shall apply shall be that held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-eight; and thereafter elections for the choice of all the officers before mentioned shall be held biennially on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November.

All the provisions of the Constitution inconsistent with the provisions herein contained are hereby annulled.

SECOND ARTICLE OF AMENDMENT.

Senators and representatives shall hold their respective offices for terms of two years, beginning with the first Wednesday in the January succeeding their election.

The first election to which this article shall apply shall be that held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-eight; and thereafter elections for the choice of senators and representatives shall be held biennially on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November.

The general court shall assemble every year on the first Wednesday in January; and each general court shall, without any proclamation or other act of the governor, be finally dissolved on the day preceding the day appointed for the first assembling of the next elected general court.

All the provisions of the Constitution inconsistent with the provisions herein contained are hereby annulled.

Resolved, That the people shall be assembled for the purpose aforesaid, in their respective polling places in the several cities and towns, in meetings to be legally warned, and held on Tuesday the third day of November next, at which meetings all persons qualified to vote for state officers may give in their votes by ballot for or against said articles of amendment; and the same officers shall preside in said meetings as in meetings for the choice of state officers, and shall in open meetings receive, sort, count and declare the votes for and against the said articles of amendment; and the said votes shall be recorded by the clerks of said cities and towns, and true returns thereof shall be made out under the hands of the mayors and aldermen, and of the selectmen, or a major part of them, and of the clerks of said cities and towns, respectively, and sealed up, and, within ten days after the said meetings, transmitted to the secretary of the Commonwealth. So far as the same can be made applicable, the provisions of law applicable to the election of state officers shall apply to the taking of the vote on said articles of amendment.

Resolved, That each of the said articles shall be considered as a distinct amendment, to be adopted in the whole or rejected in the whole, as the people shall think proper. And every person qualified to vote as aforesaid may express his opinion on each of said articles of amendment, and the following words shall be printed on the ballot, to wit:—

First Article of Amendment: Shall the proposed amendment to the constitution establishing biennial elections of state officers be approved and ratified?

YES.
NO.

Second Article of Amendment: Shall the proposed amendment to the constitution establishing biennial elections of members of the general court be approved and ratified?

YES.
NO.

And each article that shall appear to be approved by a majority of the persons voting thereon shall be deemed and taken to be ratified and adopted by the people.

Resolved, That his excellency the governor, and the council, shall forthwith open and examine the votes returned as aforesaid; and if it shall appear that said articles of amendment, or either of them, have been approved by a majority of the persons voting thereon, according to the votes returned and certified as aforesaid, the same shall be enrolled on parchment, and deposited in the secretary's office as a part of the constitution of this Commonwealth, and shall be published in immediate connection therewith, numbered according to their numerical position, with the articles of amendment of the constitution heretofore adopted, in all future editions of the laws of this Commonwealth printed by public authority.

Resolved, That his excellency the governor be, and hereby is, authorized and requested to issue his proclamation forthwith after the examination of the votes returned as aforesaid, reciting said articles of amendment, or either of them, and announcing that said articles, or either of them, have been duly adopted and ratified by the people of the Commonwealth, and thus become a part of the constitution thereof, and requiring all magistrates and officers and all citizens of the Commonwealth to take notice thereof and govern themselves accordingly, or that said articles, or either of them, have been rejected, as the case may be.

Resolved, That a printed copy of these resolves, including the said articles of amendment, shall be transmitted as soon as may be by the secretary of the Commonwealth to the mayors and aldermen of the several cities and to the selectmen of the several towns of the Commonwealth. [Approved April 17, 1896.]

Said meeting may be closed at three o'clock in in the afternoon.

And you are required to post attested copies of this warrant in three public places in this town seven days at least before the time of said meeting.

Hereof fail not and make due return of this warrant with your doings thereon to the Town Clerk, at or before the time of said meeting.

Given under our hands at East Longmeadow the seven tenth day of October, Eighteen Hundred ninety-six.

State
Election
Nov. 3, 1896.

Agreeable to the Warrant recorded on the preceding pages the inhabitants of the town qualified to vote in Elections met at the Town Hall, on Tuesday November 3rd 1896, and brought in their ballots for the several officers and questions mentioned in the warrant, and the proceedings and vote in detail of said Election, was as follows:—

Before opening of the polls George De la Durantaye, J. F. Whitaker, Edward J. O'Brien, David De la Durantaye, John Reilly, Arthur G. Crane and F. M. Hills, who had been previously appointed by the Selectmen to act as ballot clerks and tellers to assist the Selectmen and town clerk, in the conduct of the Election were duly sworn by O. L. Wolcott Justice of the Peace.

George Durantaye and J. F. Whitaker were assigned to take charge of the check list at the ballot box, Edward J. O'Brien and J. L. Davis (one of the selectmen) as ballot clerks, and David De la Durantaye, John Reilly, A. G. Crane and F. M. Hills to act as tellers in count of vote.

H. N. Hall chairman of selectmen acted as presiding officer, Warrant for Election ^{read} by the Town Clerk. Seals on the first set of 300 Ballots broken by presiding officer and given to ballot clerks, by whom they were counted and found correct and ballots were properly receipted for.

Ballot box shown to be empty, locked by presiding officer, and key given to J. C. Morgan, police officer.

And polls declared open at 11⁰⁰ o'clock.

(1st) opening of polls Ballot box register stood 000

As soon as fifty ballots were cast the box was opened by presiding officer under provisions of Chapter 240 Acts of 1896 and the count of vote commenced by tellers, and succeeding ballots were similarly removed in blocks of fifty until four blocks of fifty (200 ballots) had been removed. It was voted to close polls at 4³⁵ P.M. and they were so closed.

At close Ballot box register stood 212. Names checked on voters lists were audibly counted and 202 names found to be checked on each list.

At close of polls two ballots were found in box, making with the ballots previously removed two hundred and two ballots cast.

Check lists, defaced and unused Ballots were duly sealed and properly inclosed by election officers.

Results of block sheets, used by the tellers in counting, were carried to total sheets by O. L. Wolcott clerk, supervised by other officers.

Ballots cast were properly sealed and indorsed, by election officers.

The total vote for the several candidates, and questions were found to be as follows and were so publicly declared by the Town Clerk, viz:—

E. L. R. Endicott and P. C. O. Leary were appointed tellers and sworn by Clerk.

Vote for moderator resulted as follows:—

J. C. Pease had nine votes

C. H. Rugbee had two votes.

J. C. Pease declared elected and took charge of meeting.

The following vote was passed but was later in the meeting reconsidered and rescinded, viz: Voted that the School Committee shall pay the transportation of all scholars to the High School who wish to accept it.

(See below for reconsideration and rescinding of same).

At 11⁴⁰ it was voted to take a recess of twenty minutes while polls were being opened for State Elections.

At the expiration of this time meeting again called to order by moderator and it was voted to adjourn for one hour. At the expiration of the hour meeting once more called to order by moderator.

A motion that we pay the full tuition at Springfield of High School pupils and adopt the Springfield High School as the high school of the town. This to take effect at the commencement of the Winter term was, after considerable discussion, lost and it was voted to postpone action on payment of tuition until March meeting.

Voted to reconsider and rescind vote as to payment of transportation.
Voted to Adjourn. A true record.

State
Election
Nov. 3, 1914

Agreeable to the warrant recorded above the inhabitants of East Longmeadow qualified to vote in State Elections did meet on Tuesday November 3, 1914, at 6 o'clock in the forenoon and the proceedings and vote at said election were as follows:-

Warrant for election read by the Town Clerk, ballot-box shown to be empty and was locked and key given to George F. Hibbs constable. Seals on ballots broken by F. C. Burton, Chairman of Selectmen acting as presiding officers and given to ballot clerks. The following persons previously appointed election officers were sworn by Town Clerk, George W. Bailey, George S. Wood, and James J. Conway. Polls were opened at 6 o'clock A.M. and at opening of polls ballot box register stood 000.

After 96 ballots had been cast it was found that several ballots had been caught in ballot box and failed to drop into lower part of box, interfering with the deposit of other ballots. At request of presiding officer box was unlocked by constable and ballots caught were removed and placed with the others cast in lower part of ballot box, all ballots in box at the time remained in full view of election officers while this was being done. Box was then unlocked by constable with all of the ballots cast ~~to~~ that time returned to the box. When 100 ballots had been cast ballot box was unlocked with the unanimous consent of the election officers and the ballots removed for counting and box relocked. Box was also unlocked when 150 ballots had been cast and the third block of fifty removed with unanimous consent.

Voted to close the polls at 4 o'clock and the polls were so closed. At the close of polls ballot box registers stood 151. Check lists were publicly examined. The names checked were counted and it was found that 151 names had been checked on each, and it was found that with ballots previously removed there were 151 ballots that had been cast.

At close of polls the unused ballots were enclosed sealed and properly indorsed by the ballot clerks.

In the conduct of the election and canvass of ballots the election officers already mentioned were also assisted by John L. Davis and Walter M. Forsyth Selectmen.

The ballots cast at the election, after they were canvassed, were properly inclosed together with the check lists used, the package sealed and suitably indorsed by election officers.

The ballots were canvassed by F. C. Weston presiding officer, Geo. W. Bailey, George S. Wood and James J. Conway, and results entered on block sheets by Town Clerk, and the results were carried from block sheets to total sheet by Town Clerk assisted by George S. Wood, teller, and the results of the ballot were found to be as follows and were so publicly declared by Town Clerk:—

State Primary Sep. 21, 1915 Pursuant to preceding warrant the voter met in the Town Hall at 4 o'clock P.M. and the following is a true record of the proceedings thereof

Warrant read by Town clerk, Tellers Patrick C. O'Henry, James J. Conway, Walter W. Forsyth and Frank C. Burton sworn by clerk. Ballot box shown to be empty and locked by Town clerk and polls opened at 4 P.M.

Walter W. Forsyth and James J. Conway acting as ballot clerks and Patrick C. O'Henry and Town clerk at check list at ballot box. Ballot box in charge of Frank C. Burton Chairman of Shermer.

Polls closed at 8 o'clock P.M. At close names checked on lists were counted and 48 names were checked on each list. Ballot box register at close stood "58" but in use it was several times found necessary to make two turns to put ballot into box thus registering twice for one ballot.

When ballot box was opened ballots were first counted and forty eight (48) found therein Ballots were then sorted as provided by law and 36 Republican, 12 Democratic and no Progressive Party ballots found.

Ballots were then canvassed by tellers above named and Town Clerk and the result found to be as shown below, and was publicly declared by Town clerk:

District Clerks Meeting

The town clerks of the several towns composing the Second Hampden Representative District met on Friday, November 12th 1915, it being the tenth day following the election, as required by law, at 12 o'clock noon. The returns from the several towns were examined and the results tabulated and it was determined therefore that Edward E. Chapman of Ludlow and George W. Love of West Springfield had been elected representatives from the district. Duplicate certificates of election were prepared for the representatives elect and for return to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, which certificates were duly attested by the signatures of the several clerks.

The following schedule is a copy of an original prepared at said meeting, showing the vote for the candidates in detail, which original is also on file.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

Warrant
Special Meeting
Nov. 30, 1915

Hampden S.S.

To George F. Kibbe Collector of Taxes for the Town of East Longmeadow:-

In the name of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts you are hereby required to notify and warn the inhabitants of the Town of East Longmeadow, qualified to vote in elections and town affairs to meet in the town hall on Tuesday evening November 30, 1915 at eight o'clock P.M., then and there to act on the following articles:-

Article I. To see if the town will authorize the treasurer to receive the town's interest in the estate of Sherman D. Porter, partly in stocks, notes bonds or other property, in which the residue of the estate is at present invested, and partly in cash and to receipt for the same in the name of the town.

Article II. To see if the town will pass such votes as may be necessary or desirable to further define and regulate the management, investment and use of the funds that shall be received from the estate of Sherman D. Porter, and the income

Special Report of Finance Committee

After consideration of information submitted to us by the selectmen and the Treasurer, concerning the Sherman D. Porter bequest, your committee have voted to recommend that the town pass the following votes at the Special Town Meeting to be held Tuesday evening, November 30, 1915.

1. That the Treasurer be and is hereby authorized to receive a part or whole of the town's share in the estate of Sherman D. Porter, partly in stocks, bonds, notes, or other property in which the residue is now invested and partly in cash; the property received that is in form other than cash to be of the same kind and amount as that received by the other residuary legatee as far as that is possible.
2. That, until other action by the town, the funds received from the estate of Sherman D. Porter shall be considered as the principal of a permanent trust fund, to be known as the "Porter Memorial Fund," the income of which shall be used for highway purposes, either construction or maintenance, and which may include sidewalks within the limits of the highway, and the surface drainage of public streets, but not to include street lights.
3. That the care and management of the Porter Memorial Fund shall be in the hands of the Treasurer, but subject to the approval of the selectmen.
4. That the Treasurer is hereby authorized in the name and behalf of the town and with the approval of a majority of the selectmen to sell from time to time the stocks, bonds, notes, or other property belonging to the Porter Memorial Fund and with the approval of a majority of the selectmen to reinvest the proceeds, in such manner as appears best to conserve the interests of the town.
5. That in making investments of the Porter Memorial Fund the Treasurer and the selectmen shall invest only in such property as Massachusetts savings' banks may legally invest their funds.

6. That the books and accounts of the Porter Memorial Fund shall be kept separate and distinct from the general books of the town, and separate reports shall be made thereof and only the net income from the fund shall appear in the general books of the town; and the Treasurer is hereby authorized, with the approval of the selectmen, to pay for brokerage, council fees, and other expenses that may be incurred in the care and management of the fund, and the treasurer shall be entitled to receive such sums for his services in the care and management of the fund as the selectmen shall deem just and reasonable, all of the expenses of the care and management of the fund to be paid from its income.

7. The Treasurer shall be required to furnish such Surety Company Bonds on account of the fund as the selectmen may determine, the cost of same to be paid from the income of the fund.

8. That the net income of the Porter Memorial Fund may be appropriated by ordinary vote of the town for the purposes mentioned in the will of Sherman D. Porter and as further defined by vote of the town, in the same manner as other appropriations; but in case the town does not specifically appropriate the income from said fund the selectmen may use the net income of said fund for purposes above mentioned and this vote shall be construed as authorizing and appropriating the net income of the fund for highway purposes.

9. That none of the principal of the Porter Memorial Fund as previously defined shall be used except for highway construction and for that purpose shall be appropriated only as follows:

A proposition to use any of the principal of said fund must be first submitted to the finance committee and after consideration and report by this committee it may then be brought before the town for vote at a regular or special town meeting, the warrant for said meeting to state clearly the amount that it is proposed to appropriate from the fund for said highway construction and the highways on which the proposed work is to be done. In addition to the service of the warrant prescribed by state law and by-laws of the town, notice of the proposed appropriation of a part of the principal of this trust fund shall be mailed by the town clerk to every registered voter in town, seven days at least before the time of said meeting, which notice shall include a copy of the article or articles in the warrant relating to this matter and the day and hour of the meeting, which additional service shall be duly attested by the town clerk, and it shall require a two-thirds vote of the voters present and voting at a meeting called as above, to carry a vote appropriating any part of the principal of said fund.

10. The selectmen are hereby authorized and instructed to employ an engineer to make surveys and work out a general plan for permanent improvements on the main roads of the town which have not yet received such improvements and to obtain estimates of the cost of such general plan of improvement. The results of such investigation when completed to be submitted to the finance committee, which committee shall take these plans and estimates under consideration, together with the facts that shall develop in regard to the Porter Memorial Fund and shall make report with recommendations to the town when in their best judgment action should be taken by the town on the matter of these improvements.

By order of the Finance Committee,

Attest, O. LOUIS WOLCOTT, Clerk.

Pursuant to the foregoing warrant the voters entitled to vote in Primaries did meet at 4 o'clock P.M. on Tuesday April 25, 1916 and the following is a true record of the proceedings and result at said primary;

Warrant for Primary read by clerk. Ballot box shown to be empty and locked by clerk. At opening of polls ballot box register stood 000. Primary in charge of following; Frank C. Burton, selectman acting as presiding officer, Walter M. Forsyth selectman, William Bailey, George S. Wood and S. J. Bomier, appointed by the selectmen and the town clerk.

Primary officers duly sworn by Town Clerk

During the conduct of primary it was frequently found that two or more turns of handle of ballot box were necessary to carry ballot into box and once it was necessary to open box and remove a ballot which had become clogged in the mechanism of box, and as a result register failed to show number of ballots cast.

Polls were closed at 8 o'clock P.M. At close ballot box register stood 131. Both check sheets were publicly counted and it was found that 97 names were checked on each list, and count of ballots showed 97 ballots cast.

When ballots had been sorted it was found that there were 67 Republican ballots, 17 Democratic, 1 Prohibition and 12 defective ballots which could not be counted.

District Clerk's Meeting

District Clerks

meeting

The town clerks of the several towns composing the Second Hampden Representative District met on Friday November 17th 1916, it being the tenth day following the election, as required by law, at 12 o'clock noon. The returns from the several towns were examined and the results tabulated and it was determined therefrom that Clarence H. Sawyer and George W. Love of West Springfield had been elected representatives from the district. Duplicate certificates of election were prepared for the representatives elect and for return to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, which certificates were duly attested by the signatures of the several clerks.

The following schedule is a copy of an original prepared at said meeting, showing the vote for the candidates in detail, which original is also on file.

Special Town

Meeting

Dec. 13, 1914

Hampden S. S.

Special Town Meeting.

To George F. Kibbe, Collector of Taxes for the Town of East Longmeadow.

In the name of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts you are hereby required to notify and warn the inhabitants of the Town of East Longmeadow, qualified to vote in elections and town affairs, to meet at the Town Hall on Wednesday evening, December thirteenth 1914, at 8 o'clock, then and there to act on the following article as petitioned by Charles E. Barnstead and others.

Article I. To see if the town will vote to amend Section 2 of the Town By-Laws so as to read:

"That the annual town meeting for the election of town officers be held on the first Monday in February, and the following Wednesday evening be designated for the transaction of other business. The polls for the election of town officers shall be opened as early as six o'clock A. M., and may be closed at two o'clock P. Warrant
State Election
Nov 6, 1917

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Hampden S.T.

To George F. Kibbe, Collector of Taxes for the Town of East Longmeadow:—

In the name of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts you are hereby required to notify and warn the inhabitants of the Town of East Longmeadow, qualified to vote in State Elections, to meet in the Town Hall on Tuesday November 6th, 1917, at eleven o'clock A.M., then and there to vote for the following officers:—

Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary, Treasurer, Auditor, Attorney General, all of the above for this Commonwealth, Councilor eighth district, Senator first Hampden district, ^{Now Representative in the General Court Second Hampden District} and County Commissioner for Hampden County.

Also to vote on the following questions submitted by the Constitutional Convention viz: The acceptance of the following proposed articles of amendment to the State Constitution

Article of Amendment. No. 1.

The General Court shall have power to provide by law for voting by qualified voters of the Commonwealth who, at the time of an election, are absent from the city or town of which they are inhabitants in the choice of any officer to be elected or upon any question submitted at such election.

Article of Amendment. No. 2.

Article XVIII. Section 1. No law shall be passed prohibiting the free exercise of religion.

Section 2. All moneys raised by taxation in the towns and cities for the support of public schools, and all moneys which may be appropriated by the commonwealth for the support of common schools shall be applied to, and expended in, no other schools than those which are conducted according to law, under the order and superintendence of the authorities of the town or city in which the money is expended; and no grant, appropriation or use of public money or property or loan of public credit shall be made or authorized by the commonwealth or any political division thereof for the purpose of founding, maintaining or aiding any school or institution of learning, whether under public control or otherwise, wherein any denominational doctrine is inculcated, or any other school, or any college, infirmary, hospital, institution, or educational, charitable or religious undertaking which is not publicly owned and under the exclusive control, order and superintendence of public officers or public agents authorized by the commonwealth or federal authority or both, except that appropriations may be made for the maintenance and support of the Soldiers' Home in Massachusetts and for free public libraries in any city or town, and to carry out legal obligations, if any, already entered into; and no such grant, appropriation or use of public money or property or loan of public credit shall be made or authorized for the purpose of founding, maintaining or aiding any church, religious denomination or society.

Section 3. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the commonwealth, or any political division thereof, from paying to privately controlled hospitals, infirmaries, or institutions for the deaf, dumb or blind not more than the ordinary and reasonable compensation for care or support actually rendered or furnished by such hospitals, infirmaries or institutions to such persons as may be in whole or in part unable to support or care for themselves.

Section 4. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to deprive any inmate of a publicly controlled reformatory, penal or charitable institution of the opportunity of religious exercises therein of his own faith; but no inmate of such institution shall be compelled to attend religious services or receive religious instruction against his will, or, if a minor, without the consent of his parent or guardian.

Section 5. This amendment shall not take effect until the October first next succeeding its ratification and adoption by the people.

Article of Amendment. No. 3.

The maintenance and distribution at reasonable rates, during time of war, public exigency, emergency or distress, of a sufficient supply of food and other common necessities of life and the providing of shelter, are public functions, and the commonwealth and the cities and towns therein may take and may provide the same for their inhabitants in such manner as the general court shall determine.

The vote for the officers to be elected and the vote on the articles of amendment submitted all to be on one ballot.

The polls will be open as above at 11 o'clock A.M. and will be closed at eight o'clock P.M.

You are directed to serve this warrant by pasting attested copies thereof, seven days at least before the time of said meeting, in three public places in said town as directed by state law and by-laws of the town.

District Clerks Meeting

The town clerks of the several towns composing the Second Hampden Representative District met at the Town Hall on Friday, Nov 16, 1917, it being the tenth day following the election, as required by law, at 12 o'clock noon.

The returns from the several towns were examined and the results tabulated and it was determined therefrom that Charles L. Cooley of East Longmeadow and Clarence H. Granger of Agawam had been elected representatives for the district. Duplicate Certificates of election were prepared for the representatives elect and for return to the Secretary of the Commonwealth which certificates were duly attested by the signatures of the several clerks.

The following schedule is a copy of an original prepared at said meeting, showing in detail the vote for the several Candidates, which original is also on file.

District Clerks Meeting

The town clerks of the several towns comprising the Second Hampden Representative District, met at the Town Hall in West Springfield on Friday November 15, 1918 at 12 o'clock noon, as required by law.

The returns from the several towns were examined and the results tabulated and it was determined therefore that Charles L. Cooley of West Longmeadow and Clarence H. Granger of Agawam had been elected representatives for the district.

Duplicate certificates of election were prepared for the representatives elect and for return to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, which certificates were duly attested by the signatures of the several clerks.

The following schedule is a copy of an original prepared at said meeting, showing the detail of the vote for the several candidates, which original is on file.

Hampden S. S.

To Charles W. Marston, Collector of Taxes for The Town of East Longmeadow, Mass.

In the name of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, you are hereby required to notify and warn the Inhabitants of said East Longmeadow, qualified to vote in elections and town affairs, to meet at the Town Hall on Monday, February 3, 1919, at six o'clock in the forenoon, there to act on the following article:

Article I. To cast their votes for the following town officers, moderator, town clerk, town treasurer, Collector of taxes, tree wardens, two constables, two auditors and three members of finance committee, all for one year; one selectman, one overseer of the poor, one assessor, one school committee, one water commissioner, and one library trustee, all for three years; and one school committee for two years to fill vacancy.

Also to vote on the following question, the ballot to be "yes" or "no", "Shall licenses be granted for the sale of intoxicating liquors in this town?"

All of the foregoing to be voted for on one ballot as provided by law and votes of the town.

The polls to be opened at six o'clock in the forenoon and may be closed at two o'clock in the afternoon.

You Charles W. Marston, collector of taxes aforesaid, are also required to notify and warn the said inhabitants to meet at the Town Hall at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the day aforesaid to act on the following articles:

Article 2. To hear and act on the reports of all officers and committees whose duty it is to report at said meeting.

Article 3. To raise and appropriate such sums of money as may be required to carry on the business of the several departments of the town for the year 1919.

 election

Agreeable to the above warrant recorded on pages 569 to 573, inclusion, the vote of the town did meet in the Town Hall on Feb 2nd at 7:00 o'clock P.M. Meeting called to order by Moderator.
 Edward M. ... who announced that he was acting as a hold over.
 refusing till a newly elected Moderator should qualify. The Town Clerk, read the protest, and the Moderator called on Mr. ... to open the meeting with prayer. The following protest was presented, to the Moderator. By the undersigned, protest the election of town officers of today (Feb 2, 1922) as illegal on the grounds that the voters were denied the privilege of voting for Moderator for the ensuing year, there being no Moderator elected because no section was provided on the official ballot for such office.

By Laws of the Town of Exeter, New Hampshire.

Article I General Provisions: Section I.

The following rules of construction shall be observed in all By Laws of the Town, unless inconsistent with their manifest intent or with their context:

4. Words importing the singular shall include the plural; words importing the plural shall include the singular; and words importing the masculine shall include the feminine.
5. The word street shall include, all public ways, town ways, squares, lanes, sidewalks, and parks, or other open and public places within or without the town.
6. The word person shall include corporations.
7. The word owner, used in reference to real estate shall include all persons, whether their estate therein who have a rightful estate in possession in and to such real estate.
8. Words prohibiting anything being done, except in accordance with a license or permit, or authority from a board or officer of the Town, shall be construed as giving such board or officer power to license, permit or authorize such act.
9. Words prohibiting any act shall not be construed as prohibiting any board or officer of the Town from doing such things as he or they may rightfully do in the execution of their or his powers of office.
10. The word sidewalk shall be construed as meaning any sidewalk, foot path, bicycle path, or other path commonly and generally used by pedestrians, situated outside of that portion of a street commonly used by horses and vehicles for travel, whether or not the same has been wrought or constructed by or under the authority of the Town.

Article II Highways and Public Places. Section I

No person other than those officers or boards having authority to repair or construct highways, or a person acting under the authority of any of them, shall dig up, open, or excavate in any street, without first obtaining permission in writing, so & to from the Selectmen, and if the Selectmen so require, executing and delivering to the Town an agreement under seal, to indemnify the Town and save it harmless from all loss, cost, or damage caused by it thereby, and to replace the material and substance so dug up or removed to the satisfaction of the Selectmen. Such permission shall state the place where, and the manner in which such opening or excavation may be made.

Whoever does so open, dig up, or excavate in any street shall properly guard such opening or excavation, and the substance or material removed therefrom, and shall keep the same properly lighted from one hour after sunset until sunrise.

Section II No person shall dig up, plow, cut up, or disturb any portion of any street, except that any owner whose land abuts upon any street may grade or otherwise beautify said street immediately in front of his own parcel in such manner as will not interfere with public travel in the street in said street reserved or generally used for such travel.

Section III No person shall throw or place, or cause to be thrown or placed, any ash, cinders, garbage, refuse, rags, or other foreign matter in any street.

Section IV No person shall throw or place, or cause to be thrown or placed, in any street or upon any sidewalk, any glass, broken crockery, scrap iron, nails, whole or broken bottles, or any other articles that would be liable to injure the feet of horses or pedestrians, or injure or damage the tires of bicycles, or of any other vehicle which has wheels with tires composed in whole or in part of rubber.

Section V No person shall allow a horse or vehicle under his control to stand or be driven in any street in such a manner as to unreasonably obstruct travel in the same.

Section VI No person shall allow any vehicle under his control, while not in use, to stand in any street, nor shall he use any portion of any street for storing the same.

Section VII No person shall destroy, remove, injure, tamper with or deface any public board, sign, or other public notice, erected by the Corporation or other public or town officers.

Section VIII No person shall allow any horse, cow, or other animal under his control, to browse, graze, be pastured upon, or in any street, except upon that portion thereof upon which his land abuts.

Section IX No person shall allow any horse, cow, neat cattle or swine under his control to run at large upon any street, nor shall he drive any such cow, neat cattle or swine therein, unless the same is under his immediate control, or under the immediate control of his agents or servants.

Section X No person shall hitch or tie, or allow his horse or other animal to be hitched or tied to any tree in any street.

Section XI No person shall allow water, drainage, or any fluid or other refuse matter from any sink, sink drain, sewer or cess pool, situated on land which he owns or occupies to be or run into or over any street.

Section XII No person shall throw a ball, stone, or other missile, upon or across any street, except that the Selectmen may set apart various parts of the streets in which persons may play ball under such conditions and restrictions as they may determine.

Section XIII No person shall discharge any missile from any gun, or air rifle, sling shot, or other like instrument, within, upon, over or across any street.

Section XIV No person shall place or throw any dead or decaying animal or vegetable matter, ashes, bottles, broken glass, tin cans, stones, earth, or any other foreign substances, into any sewer, man hole or catch basin.

Section XV No person shall lead, ride, or drive any horse, mule, cow or herd cattle upon or over any sidewalk, except to cross the same.

Section XVI No person shall revel, quarrel, behave in a boisterous, insolent or disorderly manner, or use any indecent or profane, insulting or abusive language, or sing any loud, profane or indecent song in any street or public place.

Section XVII Three or more persons shall not stand or loiter upon any street, or in the entrance of any public building, after having been ordered to move therefrom by a Selectman, constable, or public officer.

Section XVIII Whoever violates any of the provisions of this article shall be punished by a fine of not more than twenty dollars and not less than three dollars.

Article III Collectors of Junk, &c. Section I

No person shall go about from place to place in said Town, collecting by purchase or otherwise junk, old metals or second hand articles without being licensed so to do by the Selectmen.

Section II Whoever violates the provisions of this article shall be punished by a fine of not more than twenty dollars and not less than two dollars.

Article IV Section I No person shall in a state of nudity expose himself in any portion of the Town and no person shall swim or bathe in any pond, stream, or body of water in the Town dressed in clothing so as to be indecently exposed to the view of any person lawfully passing or being in or upon any street within the Town.

Section II Whoever violates any of the provisions of this article shall be punished by a fine of not more than twenty dollars and not less than five dollars.

By-Laws Buildings Construction and Inspection.

Legal Notices

TOWN OF EAST LONGMEADOW

By-Laws Regulating the Inspection, Construction and Use of Buildings and Other Structures ADMINISTRATION

Section 1. These by-laws shall be applicable only to that part of the territory of the town bounded by a line described as follows: Beginning at the intersection of Elm Street with the boundary line of the city of Springfield, thence by Elm Street to Maplehead Avenue, thence by Maplehead Avenue to Wilbraham Road, thence by Wilbraham Road to Kibbe Road, thence by Kibbe Road to Hampden Road, thence by Hampden Road to New Road, thence by New Road to Hall Hill Crossroad, thence by Hall Hill Crossroad to Prospect Street, thence by Prospect Street to Stony Hill Road, thence by Stony Hill Road to the boundary line of the town of Longmeadow, thence by said boundary line to the boundary line of the city of Springfield, thence by said boundary line to the point of beginning. The part of the territory of the town within the said line shall be hereinafter designated the building district.

Section 2. No building or other structure except such as are owned or occupied by the United States or by the Commonwealth and except bridges, shall be constructed, altered or repaired unless the requirements of law and of these by-laws relative thereto have been complied with.

Section 3. No building or other structure except as aforesaid shall be constructed, altered or repaired until a statement in writing of the proposed work shall have been submitted to the inspector of buildings and he shall have allowed that the proposed work is in compliance with the requirements of law and of these by-laws and shall have issued a permit for the proposed work.

Section 4. All permits issued by the inspector of buildings shall be on printed forms approved by him. All applications for permits shall be in writing on forms furnished by the inspector of buildings.

Section 5. An applicant for a permit whose application has been refused by the inspector of buildings may appeal therefrom within thirty days. Such appeal shall be made in writing to the board of selectmen. After notice given to such persons as the board may order, a hearing shall be had, and the board shall affirm, annul or modify the decision of the inspector of buildings.

Section 6. If the inspector of buildings finds that the terms of a permit are being violated, he may, after notice in writing to the person to whom the permit was issued, order the whole or any part of the work which is being done under the permit, to be stopped and such work shall not be resumed until the terms of the permit have been complied with.

FOUNDATIONS

Section 7. Excavations for foundations shall be made not less than six inches beyond the outside of foundation walls and shall not be back-filled until inspected. The foundations of all buildings for dwelling, business or manufacturing purposes shall be walls of concrete or masonry, and piers of concrete, masonry, not less than eight inches thick, and all masonry shall be laid in cement mortar. All wooden buildings not more than two stories in height may be built wholly on piers or posts. The foundations of all buildings must rest on solid ground or leveled surfaces of solid rock, or on piers, concrete, or other solid substructure. Such foundation other than solid rock must be not less than four feet below the adjacent surface of the ground exposed to front. Porches, patios, and bay-windows shall have a suitable foundation of stone, brick, iron or concrete, built on solid bottom, not less than four feet below, and extending not less than three inches above the finished grade, and no woodwork shall come below that grade.

WOODEN BUILDINGS

Section 8. No wooden building to be used for a dwelling, school, shop, except a 45 feet in height nor shall be more than two stories high, and no portion of any wooden building shall be placed at a less distance than five feet from the line of the lot upon which the building is to be located, or within 10 feet of another wooden building, except where a brick exterior wall is substituted for a wooden wall, and of a thickness and in the manner prescribed for exterior walls of brick buildings.

Section 9. All wooden frame buildings shall be built with sills, posts, girts, or studs and plates.

Section 10. In all wooden buildings not exceeding two stories in height, the posts of which exceed eighteen feet in length, the sills shall be not less than four by six inches laid flatways, and the posts and girts not less than four by four inches; in all wooden buildings the studding of the outside walls shall be not less than two by four inches, set sixteen inches on centers, and the studding in all partitions carrying floor timbers shall be not less than two by four inches, set not more than sixteen inches on the centers, and resting on girders not less than six by six inches. All window studding shall be not less than two by four inches. Ledger boards may be used in place of girts in one and one-half story houses or in dwellings where the attic floor is below the plates. If the space back of ledger boards between studding shall be filled with joists of same size as wall studs cut in tight so as to prevent a draft in case of fire. All self-supporting walls or partitions above the first floor in any building shall be trussed.

FLOOR TIMBERS

Section 11. Floor timbers in dwelling houses, when of good sound lumber set sixteen inches on centers, shall be of the following sizes: For a span not exceeding ten feet the timbers shall be not less than two by six inches; for a span not exceeding twelve feet the timbers shall be not less than two by seven inches; for a span not exceeding fourteen feet the timbers shall be not less than two by eight inches; for a span not exceeding sixteen feet the timbers shall be not less than two by nine inches; for a span not exceeding eighteen feet the timbers shall be not less than two by twelve inches; for a span not exceeding twenty feet the timbers shall be not less than two by fourteen inches; for a span not exceeding twenty-two feet the timbers shall be not less than three by fourteen inches in size, or of a span giving their equivalent in strength.

There shall be girders not less than six by eight inches under main partitions and trimmers or floor timbers doubled, or their equivalent, under all cross-partitions in the first floor of all dwellings. Headers and trimmers of all openings more than four feet square in first floor of dwellings shall be floor joists doubled, or their equivalent. Beams carrying main or cross partitions in first floor shall be supported on piers or iron posts not more than ten feet apart; trimmers in first floor over twelve feet in length shall be supported by a pier or post.

The attic floor timbers shall not be less than two by six inches for any attic whether finished or unfinished, which there is access and which can be used for storage or other purposes.

All floor timbers with a span from ten to sixteen feet shall have one row of bridging; all floor timbers with a span of sixteen feet or more shall have a bridging at least every eight feet, and all bridging shall be not less than one by two inches.

All cutting of floor timbers for the passage of pipes shall be on their upper edges, and no cut shall exceed two inches in depth, or be made more than three feet from the point of support of the timber. No cutting in the under side of a floor timber will be allowed for any reason.

ROOF TIMBERS

Section 12. In buildings which are eighteen feet or more in width rafters for pitched roofs shall measure not less than two by six inches, and spaced not more than twenty-four inches on centers. Valley rafters in no case shall be less than two by seven inches. Flat roofs shall be timbered the same as floors.

FLOOR LOADS

Section 13. All new or renewed floors and stairs shall be so constructed as to carry safely the weight to which the proposed use of the building may subject them, and every permit granted shall state for what purpose the building is designed to be used; but the least capacity per superficial square foot, exclusive of materials shall be:

For floors of houses for habitation, forty pounds.

For floors of retail stores, one hundred pounds.

For floors of warehouses and mercantile buildings, at least two hundred pounds.

For flat roofs, forty pounds.

For stairs, landings, platforms and fire escapes, seventy pounds.

The full floor load specified in this section shall be included in proportioning all parts of buildings designed for warehouses, or for heavy mercantile and manufacturing purposes. In all buildings, however, reductions may be allowed as follows: For floors carrying more than one hundred square feet of floor, the live load may be reduced ten per cent. For columns, piers, walls and other parts carrying two floors, a reduction of fifteen per cent of the total live load may be made. Where three floors are carried, the total live load may be reduced by twenty per cent; four floors, twenty-five per cent; five floors, thirty per cent; six floors, thirty-five per cent.

CHIMNEYS AND HEATING APPARATUS

Section 14. All chimneys hereafter erected shall be built from the ground of brick, stone or other fireproof non-heat-conducting material, and shall be built plumb, or nearly so as to be self-sustaining; provided, however, that brick flues may be securely built into the brick work of the walls of the building to which they are hung, when the walls are not less than twelve inches thick.

All brick chimneys shall be built of hard burned brick plastered outside below the roofing after having been examined and approved by the inspector, except that exposed portions of said chimneys may be left unplastered upon the outside. Said chimneys shall be topped out with brick or stone, laid in cement, and the topping out shall have more than two inches projection unless the bricks are covered by a cap of stone or other non-combustible material, in one piece, properly secured, and approved by the inspector; and in no case shall a wall be driven into the masonry of any flue. All chimneys with exterior walls less than eight inches thick shall be lined with fire clay flue lining.

Section 15. No smoke-pipe in any such wooden or frame building shall hereafter enter any flue unless the said pipe shall be at least twelve inches from either the floors or ceiling; and in cases where smoke-pipes pass through stud or wooden partitions of any kind, whether the same be plastered or not, they shall be guarded by either a double collar of metal, with at least four inches of air space and holes for ventilation, or by a soapstone ring not less than three inches in thickness, and extending through the partition.

Section 16. All hearths shall be supported upon trimmer arches of brick or stone, or upon bars of iron supporting a bed of brick work and shall be at least twelve inches longer than the width of the fire-place openings and at least eighteen inches wide in front of the chimney breast. Wooden centering supporting a trimmer arch shall be removed before plastering.

Section 17. Brick work of all grates, fireplaces and ranges shall be not less than eight inches thick, and when it adjoins a wooden or stud partition shall have at least two four-inch walls, with at least two-inch air space between. No wood work shall be secured to the brick work of any flue nor placed within one inch of any chimney. Open fireplaces shall have fireproof foundations.

a. The top of every heating furnace or steam boiler shall be set at least one foot below the lowest part of the ceiling or floor next above it.

b. Where floor beams rest on partition caps or on girders, wall girts or wooden sills, fill in between such beams, from the caps, girders, girts or sills to four inches above lining floor above solid with brick and mortar or other fireproof material.

c. When floor beams in frame buildings rest on enclosed boards fire-stops shall be placed on bridging pieces cut in between the studs, or, where practicable, on the ends of lining floor.

d. In brick buildings the space between the furring on the outside walls or brick partitions should be filled flush with mortar for a space of five inches in width above and below the floor beams of each story.

e. Where basement or other flights of stairs are enclosed by partitions of brick or wood, the spaces between the studs or wall furrings must be so fire-stopped with brick or mortar as to effectively prevent any fire from passing up between such studs or furring back of the stair stringers.

f. All flights of stairs between two floors must have two smoke stops built between the stringers and properly constructed.

g. No pipes for conveying hot air or steam must be placed nearer than one inch to any wood work unless protected by suitable guards or casings of incombustible material.

h. No wooden flue or air duct of any description can be used for heating or ventilating purposes.

i. No steam pipe, furnace pipe or other hot air pipe used for heating purposes, shall be carried within one (1) inch of any woodwork unless protected by suitable guards or casings of incombustible material.

j. All steam and hot water pipes used for heating purposes, where passing through woodwork, shall be surrounded with metal collars.

k. All channels and pockets for gas, water and soil pipes to be made smoke-tight at each floor.

l. The space around all metal or brick ventilating ducts must be fire-stopped at each floor with metal or other fireproof material.

m. Where a building is occupied above the first floor for tenements or a lodging house and the lower story is occupied for stores, or other purposes not connected with the upper floors, the stairways leading to such upper floors must be enclosed with brick walls, or with wooden partitions filled solid with brick laid in mortar, or other fireproof material and plastered on both sides on metallic lathings at all doors in such partitions covered with tin plate, lead-jointed.

DEFINITIONS

Section 19. In these by-laws the following terms shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them:

"Alteration" means any change or addition.

"Attic" means a basement or lower story, of which one-half or more of the height of the floor to the ceiling is below the level of the land adjoining.

"Foundation" means that portion of a wall below the level of the street curb, and where the wall is not on a street, that portion of the wall below the level of the highest ground next to the wall; but if under party or partition walls, may be construed by the inspector to mean that portion below the cellar floor.

"Chimney" shall apply to any permanent or fixed flues or passages built into any building for conveying away the products of combustion from furnaces, stoves, boilers, ranges or fireplaces.

"Inspector" means the inspector of buildings of the town of East Longmeadow.

"Thickness" of a wall means the minimum of thickness of such wall.

"Persons" shall mean individuals, co-partnerships or corporations.

Section 20. Whoever violates any of the provisions of these by-laws shall be liable to a penalty of not more than one hundred dollars unless another penalty is specifically provided herein.

I hereby certify that the foregoing By-Laws were adopted at the town meeting held February 7th, 1921, adjourned to February 24th, 1921 and approved by J. Weston Allen, Attorney-General, March 16, 1921.

The following by-laws were adopted by vote of the Town at its annual Town meeting March 9, 1914, (Approved by the Attorney General April 1, 1914 and published as follows; May 18, 1914 in the Springfield Morning Union, May 25th 1914, in the Springfield Daily Republican and on June 2, 1914, in the Springfield Daily News and the following is a copy of the by-laws as published

BY-LAWS OF TOWN OF EAST LONG-MEADOW, MASS.

ADOPTED BY VOTE AT ANNUAL TOWN-MEETING, MARCH 9, 1914.
NOTIFICATIONS OF TOWN-MEETINGS AND ELECTIONS.

The warrants for all town-meetings and elections shall be directed to the Tax Collector, a constable or some police officer of the town, and every town-meeting or election shall be notified by posting attested copies of the warrant calling the same in not less than three public places in the town seven days at least before the time of said meeting or election. One copy of said warrant shall be posted at some place in or near the Town Hall, one copy at some point near the Baptist church and one copy at Foley Corner, so-called.

ANNUAL TOWN-MEETING.

The annual town-meeting for the election of town officers and the transaction of other business shall be held on the first Monday in February of each year.

The polls for the election of town officers shall be opened as early as 6 o'clock A. M. and may be closed at 2 o'clock P. M. The meeting for the transaction of other business shall be opened as early as 10 o'clock A. M. and remain open during the pleasure of the meeting.

QUORUM.

At any town-meeting for the transaction of other business than the election of town officers 10 per cent of the registered voters of the town shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and no business except adjournment to a future time or without date shall be in order unless such quorum is present.

FINANCE OR BUDGET COMMITTEE.

At every annual town election three persons shall be elected on the official ballot to serve with the town officers hereinafter named as a finance or budget committee, with duties herein defined. The committee shall consist of the following town officers in addition to the members directly elected, the treasurer and one member from each of the following boards, selectmen, school committee and water commissioners, named by the board of which they are a member, making together a committee of seven members.

It shall be the duty of this committee to investigate the needs of the town, particularly the financial requirements of the several departments, and the determination of the amounts required to carry out the work of the town for the ensuing year.

Said committee shall annually hold at least two public hearings, due notice of which shall be given, at which any citizen of the town may be heard, and they shall hold other hearings on the request of 10 voters.

The committee shall prepare for printing in the annual town report their recommendations as to appropriations required for the ensuing year, and also their report on matters submitted to them. So far as possible, all matters calling for the appropriation of money shall be presented to this committee at a sufficiently early date so that its findings can be embodied in the annual town report, and the committee shall not be required to consider and report on subjects presented to it too late for consideration in said annual report; but the committee may, if in its opinion special need therefor exists, prepare a subsequent written report to submit to the town-meeting.

It shall also be the duty of this committee to consider any matter proposed for action at a special town-meeting that involves the expenditure or appropriation of money and make written report of their recommendations in the matter to the special meeting considering it.

No vote shall be passed at any town-meeting involving the appropriation of expenditure of over $100 the subject matter of which has not first been considered and reported on by this committee.

I hereby certify that the foregoing by-laws were adopted by vote of the town at its annual meeting held March 9, 1914.

Attest:
O. LOUIS WOLCOTT, Town Clerk.
East Longmeadow, Mass., March 17, 1914.

By laws relative to dealers of coal and coke, prescribing terms and conditions for dealing therein.

Be it enacted by the voters of the Town of East Longmeadow, as follows:

Section I. Licenses granted by the Secretary of the Commonwealth to dealers of coal and coke, under and pursuant to Chapter 484 of the acts of 1903, shall be for the period of one year, and the license fee therefor shall be one dollar.

Section II. Each and every person, firm or corporation engaged in or carrying on the business of selling coal or coke at retail in the Town of East Longmeadow, either as principal or as agent, shall deliver to the customer with each separate load, lot or delivery of coal, a slip or card of appropriate size and form, to be approved by the inspector of coal hereinafter mentioned, upon which shall be printed or written in plain and legible letters and figures, a statement of the weight of each and every load, lot or separate delivery of coal sold at retail within said town, and the number or other specific description of the wagon, vehicle or other receptacle in which the coal shall be delivered, and the true weight thereof, and the net weight and the variety of coal actually delivered therein to said customer. And the statement so made by the dealer shall be subscribed and certified to by an official weigher, as correct, and such statement shall thereupon be delivered to the customer or purchaser with every separate load, lot or delivery of coal.

Section III. If any such statement so made and furnished by a dealer of coal or coke as aforesaid, or his agent, shall be knowingly false or incorrect, in matter or substance, such person shall be punished as hereinafter provided.

Section IV. There shall be appointed annually by the Selectmen, within thirty days after the annual town meeting, an inspector of coal, whose duties shall be as hereinafter prescribed.

He shall hold office for one year, and shall receive such compensation as is approved by the Selectmen.

No person shall be appointed an inspector of coal who is not at the time of his appointment a sealer of weights and measures of said town.

Section V. It shall be the duty of said inspector of coal from time to time to test in the manner provided by Revised Laws, Chapter 57, Section 89 or otherwise, as he may determine, the actual weight and variety of coal being delivered to customers in East Longmeadow, by retail dealers of coal and coke therein, and the accuracy of the statements thereof submitted to the customers as aforesaid, and at least three times each year such examination shall be made of deliveries of each retail dealer.

Written reports of the result of such examinations shall be made to the town clerk and shall be open to the inspection of the public at all proper times.

Section VI Each dealer shall separately number in plain and conspicuous letters and figures each separate wagon, vehicle or receptacle used by said dealer in making deliveries to retail customers, and shall have plainly printed thereon the weight thereof as actually used and equipped in making deliveries of coal and coke.

Section VII Whoever shall violate any of the provisions of these by-laws shall be punished by a fine of not more than twenty dollars.

Adopted and corrected by the Town of East Longmeadow by vote passed at its annual town meeting held March 24th, 1905.

(Note. Above by-laws were published in the Morning Union Mar 2nd 3rd & 4th, 1905. - Approval of Attorney General not required, see opinions of Attorney General Parker dated June 13, 1904.)
